4.5 Economic sanctions and money laundering prevention

As a global corporation, we comply with national and international economic sanctions and support the community of states to fight against money laundering and terrorism financing. UFI Filters complies with all requirements in these areas.

5. Corporate governance and internal control system, Audit activities

5.1 Corporate governance and internal control system

The Code of Ethics constitutes a fundamental element of the Corporate Governance of the UFI Filters Group.

Any individual within the UFI Filters Group having a role as supervisor, department head or company executive must act and provide leadership and guidance in accordance with the business and ethical Values, fostering transparency in business activities.

UFI Filters Group will do this by applying the maximum level of transparency consistent with best business practice with the aim of:

- establishing rigorous business processes to ensure that management decisions (including those relating to investments and disposals) are based on effective risk assessment (which shall include a sound economic analysis), and provide a guarantee that company assets are properly used;
- identifying, understanding and managing risks to all UFI Filters Group assets with professional diligence;
- guaranteeing the maximum fairness and transparency in the handling of transactions with third parties;
- ensuring that all transactions and commitments are duly authorized, verifiable and legitimate;
- ensuring that all transactions and commitments are timely, properly and accurately recorded, accounted for and duly documented in accordance with the relevant accounting principles and best practices;
- ensuring the production of comprehensive, accurate, reliable, clear and comprehensible financial reports on a timely basis;
- ensuring that decisions on finance, tax and accounting issues, are made at the proper level of management and in full compliance with applicable laws;
- ensuring the presentation of the documentation to be to be filed internally and/or to be disclosed to the public in timely fashion and making sure that this documentation is comprehensive, accurate, reliable, clear and comprehensible.

The efficiency and effectiveness of the internal control system are essential for operating the business activities, in line with the rules and Values of this Code of Ethics.

A proper internal control system ensures the following aims:

- the efficacy and efficiency of business operations, so also guaranteeing that documents and decisions are traceable;
- the reliability of accounting and management information;
- the compliance with laws and regulations;
- the safekeeping of UFI Filters Group assets;
- the compliance to Code of Ethics' Values.

For all the purposes above, the recipients of the Code of Ethics are required to contribute to the constant improvement of the internal control system.

All UFI Filters Group Employees shall act so as to maintain effective the internal control systems; to achieve this they are, inter alia, expected to keep accurate and complete internal records of all business activities and procure that appropriate authorization of transactions and commitments with business partners has been duly given by the appropriate supervisor.

In so far as they are responsible, all Employees – who are asked to cooperate on the preparation and presentation of documents to be filed internally and/or to be disclosed to the public – shall ensure that such documents are complete, accurate, reliable, clear and comprehensible.

Furthermore, business expenses are to be reported in an accurate and timely manner, they must be supported by precise documentation and must respect internal procedures.

5.2 Audit activities

In carrying out their work and in connection with their separate spheres of responsibility, the Internal Control bodies, the Statutory Auditors, the competent Regional Whistleblowing Committee and the Supervisory Board (as the case may be) enjoy direct, full, and unfettered access all personnel, activities, operations, documents, archives, and assets of the business.

Specifically, both the Internal Control body (which may be performed in outsourcing or inhouse) and the Supervisory Board (which relevance is only for Italian UFI Filters Group companies) perform periodic audit activities on the operation of and compliance with the Code of Ethics and all applicable internal Policies and Procedures.

The results of such audit activities are presented to the top management of the relevant UFI Filters Group company and to the Chief Executive Officer of the UFI Filters Group parent company UFI Filters S.p.A.

6. Implementation of
